

How do I get involved with the Future Voices digital project?

We are calling on young people who are aged 16-25 and living in England and who have any experiences or perspectives on employment to let us know if you have anything you'd like to share.

We want to hear about any challenges, experiences, opportunities or solutions. You can share your experiences in whatever format you would prefer. For example, this could be through:

A video

A podcast

A written blog

A poem/ song/ rap

A drawing / photograph... just about anything (within limits!) – get creative!

We are particularly interested in hearing from young people who identify with any of the following things:

Black, Asian or ethnic minority heritage (including Gypsy, Roma and Traveller young people)

White working-class background.

Experience of being unemployed for three months or more

Growing up in a poorer household

Experience of being in care

Having care responsibilities (such as looking after a relative or having a baby)

Having a special educational need or disability

Experience of being homeless

You don't need to come with ready-made content – an idea or interest is more than enough. We will help you to put your piece together and get it developed and published onto the site!
